SUNDAY REFLECTION BY FATHER ROY VILLAS

Reflection—Solemnity of Christ the King!

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Today, as we mark the end of the Liturgical Year, we also celebrate Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe. But unlike earthly kings who rule with power and authority, Jesus is a King who reigns with love, humility, mercy, and service. His throne is the Cross, and His crown is made of thorns.

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that when He comes in glory, He will judge us according to how we have loved and cared for others. He says: "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." This teaches us that whenever we feed the hungry, visit the sick, welcome strangers, comfort the lonely, and help those in need, we are serving Jesus Himself.

My dear friends, celebrating Christ as our King means allowing Him to reign in our hearts, our families, and our daily lives. It means choosing love over hatred, forgiveness over anger, and kindness over selfishness. Let us remember that we do not need to do extraordinary things to serve Christ. Even the smallest act of love and kindness can make a great difference in someone's life. As we celebrate this great feast, let us ask ourselves: Does Christ truly reign in my heart? Can others see His love through my words and actions?

May Christ our King guide our lives, bless our families, and help us recognize Him in everyone we meet. Christ the King, reign in our hearts today and forever. Amen.

In Christ,
Fr. Roy Villas
